General Instructions

Printing the pattern.

The patterns are designed to fit on a printed sheet A4 size (297 mm x 210 mm). This is approximately 8½ inches x 12 inches. If you set the print size as “fit to page” it will work on most other sizes of printing paper.

The backing board.

Various board materials can be used as a base. We have found that plywood or MDF (medium density fibre board) are a good choice. These boards are readily available from hardware and DIY stores. The pattern will fit well on a board 240 mm x 300 mm (approximately 9 x 12 inches) and 12 mm (1/2 inch) thick.

Paint the base board with mat black or cover with black felt. Felt is available with a self-adhesive backing or it can be secured with double-sided self-adhesive tape.

Adding the nails.

Place the printed pattern on the front of the board and secure it with tape. Drill through the pattern using a fine drill bit. This should be thinner than the nails so that they do not fall through. Remove the paper pattern and hammer nails into all of the holes.

Nails with small, or no heads, about 16 mm (5/8 inch) long such as Veneer Pins are a good choice.

Hammer the nails in until there is about 6 mm (1/4 inch) protruding.

String.

Multi-stranded cotton (sold in skeins for cross stitch work) is a good choice as it comes in a wide range of bright colours.

Tie the end of your first string on to the first nail of the sequence. This can be secured with a small drop of clear drying glue.

Work the design slowly to start with until you are familiar with the sequence.
